Turkey

A cultural bridge between Europe and Asia, rich in history, steeped in tradition and with legacies of ancient civilisations, Turkey is an endlessly fascinating land...

Many of the world's largest and best preserved archaeological sites are found here. Dotted all around are ancient buildings and ruins dating as far back as the start of civilisation. With turquoise seas, unspoilt coastline, spectacular scenery and numerous sheltered inlets, Turkey is truly magnificent. A yachtsman's paradise!!! The people of Turkey are noted for their hospitality,

There is always a warm and friendly welcome wherever you go. Their open friendliness and genuine interest in others are just two of the qualities that make this country unique. Shopping and provisioning can be an adventure in itself. The market place is the hub of every village and all resemble Ali Baba's cave, providing anything and everything the locals could possibly need. An astonishing array of jewellery, flowers, clothing, household items, garden tools, leather goods and luxurious hand woven carpets are all on show together.

Fresh local produce is in abundance and stacked high in precarious, colourful displays. You will be invited to sample everything from homemade cheeses, pickles and olives to exotic fruits, nuts and sweet pastries.

Eating out is a way of life for the Turks. Their cuisine offers a huge variety of flavours and is ranked as one of the best in the world. It is also extremely good value and inexpensive, a 2 course meal with wine averages around £8.00. The setting is often as memorable as the meal itself.

The Sailing

Sailing from our base at Bitez near Bodrum you experience the most beautiful cruising grounds in the Mediterranean. To the North, South, East and West of Bitez are fabulously varying sailing areas. The Turkish coastal belt has the sweet perfume of mandarin groves, pine forests and flowering oleander. No matter in which direction you head you will find remote secluded bays, unspoilt fishing hamlets and colourful coastal towns.

The Gulf of Gokova is to the East and at its entrance is Bodrum, alive with bars, restaurants and bustling market stalls. Here you can get lost in time bargaining for virtually anything from exotic spices to silk carpets. In the contrast of this hive of activity are the many sheltered anchorages deft deep into the mountainous coastline. Explore and discover small fishing villages, farming settlements and hidden coves where simple wooden jetties are the watermark of cheerful easy going restaurants. These are the places where you can really let your hair down and join in the local entertainment of folk songs and belly dancing.

The Gulf of Gulluk is north of Bitez and hosts two vastly different shores. On the southern shore are Torba, Turk Buku and Gundogan, playgrounds of Turkey's rich and famous. While the northern side of the gulf is for those who really want to escape. This is an area of outstanding natural beauty, with dozens of quiet and picturesque retreats such as lassos, guarded by the ruins of a fortress built in the 12th Century, Kazikli where you will be greeted by inky blue waters, sandy beaches and a family of inquisitive white ducks. South of Yalikavak, at the furthest reaches of the Datca peninsula, where the Mediterranean and Aegean seas unite, is the tiny hamlet of Knidos.

In the 4th Century there were 70,000 inhabitants, now just a few goat herders, the restaurateur and his family. Above and below the crystal clear water the - remains of the past await you: snorkel around the sunken walls of the Trireme harbour or climb the amphitheatre to the temple where Aphrodite once reigned.

Further down the coast is Datca, an isolated yet thriving holiday village, excellent for catching up on some nightlife and trading experiences with the many sailors that call in there. An opportune moment to restock with fresh supplies before venturing into the Dorian Gulf. Within this gulf are literally hundreds of coves and inlets, all with the invigorating scent of the pine forests which climb up from the shores.

Marmaris, Fethiye, Olu Deniz, Kalkan, Kas and Kekova Roads are within comfortable reach for those who want to voyage further.

The Greek Dodecanese Islands are west of our base and easily sailed to after completing port formalities. With a wealth of history this island group offer many interesting ports to visit such as Rhodes, Tilos, Simi, Kos and Leros.

The Weather

The weather offers exciting and predictable sailing conditions. Being sup-tropical, Turkey and the Greek Dodecanese Islands enjoy cloudless blue skies and pleasant warm weather from April through to November. Temperatures range from the low 20's in spring and autumn to the 30's throughout the summer. The mornings bring a light and variable breeze which builds up to force 3-5 North Westerly every afternoon. This fades as the sun goes down to provide calm and peaceful nights at anchor.

Our Base

Broadblue's base is located in Bitez, a picturesque and serene hamlet 4km to the west of Bodrum town and 8km from the Greek island of Kos.

Bitez is a small seaside resort with breathtaking views of the Aegean's Turquoise waters. A wonderful backdrop of rugged Turkish coastline and Greek islands greets you as you wind your way down to the bay. Here you will see many traditions of the past; galvas (pantaloons) and colourful headscarves being worn at the Bazaar, tea houses serving çay (tea) in tulip shaped glasses. Off the beach front are an array of shops, market stalls, restaurants, doner kebab stands, tea houses and charming bars all with that special stamp of Turkey.

Just a few minutes stroll away from the beach is Bitez Yacht Harbour and our base. Close by the harbour you will find all modern facilities which include; restaurants, bars, yacht club, supermarket & shopping centre, Internet, bank & ATM, chandlery and excellent toilet & shower amenities. The advantages to being in Bitez are a cooling sea breeze all summer, a quiet location (NO noisy all night discos in the vicinity), fabulous sailing grounds to the north, south, east & west and only a 40 minute transfer from Bodrum/Milas international airport.

Bitez will entrance you, it maintains a leisurely atmosphere and portrays the local culture, history, hospitality and friendship for which Turkey is famous. As home to Broadblue's fleet, it is the ideal place to unwind and prepare for your voyage of discovery.

Bitez - the perfect place to escape to & start your voyage of discovery!

Sail in Greece as well

Why not enjoy the best of both worlds? With the relaxation of formalities it is now easy and hassle free to sail and roam back and forth between the Turkish coast and Greek islands.

Turn your thoughts to Greece and for most of us infinitely varying images of the Gods, Mythology, the Classics and Ancient Civilisations flood our minds. All of which revolve around picture postcard settings of the sea, the islands and men on boats. It is no wonder that it has long since held a special mystique for the cruising yachtsman.

When you arrive at our base in Bitez, Turkey and look out to sea you are struck by a glorious view of a long chain of picturesque islands hugging the coast. Although they seem little more than a stone's throw away they are not Turkish, they are

distinctly different, they are the fascinating Greek Dodecanese Islands.

For those who have an EU passport or are from countries which do not need a visa for Greece you can simply cast off and sail to one of these captivating islands. Once in your first Greek port all the skipper needs to do is present himself at the Harbour Master's office with Ship's Papers, Passports and 20 euros in hand. After just fifteen minutes and a few signatures you will be given a Greek Sailing Permit. Armed with this you are now free to meander around the islands or cruise back and forth between them and the Turkish coast. Two fascinating countries in one superb fun filled holiday!!!

Although the Dodecanese islands have endured many years of occupation they are still intrinsically

Greek. With habitation dating back to the Neolithic period and having been of huge strategic importance throughout the ages there is a vast array of mesmerising historical sites to be discovered. These along with the myriads of quaint fishing villages, sheltered bays, craggy inlets, secluded beaches and landscapes that range from dramatic and volcanic to lush and wooded ensures that there truly is something for everyone.

Predictable and exciting winds every afternoon and short distances between the islands makes it effortless to sail the entire group. Just an afternoon's sail north from our base is sacred Patmos with its imposing Monastery of St John standing high above the harbour. Here you can visit the cave where St John the divine dictated the wild poetry of the Apocalypse in the Book of Revelations.

Head west some 14 miles and you come to the charming fishing and farming hamlet of Vathi on the Island of Kalimnos. Nestled in the head of a narrow, steeply cleft fjord the village is home to a number of Byzantine Churches with magnificent frescoes and a collection of fascinating lime stone caves.

Only 3 miles from the Turkish coast and shielding the entrance of the Gulf of Gokova is Kos a lush, green and wooded island. Dominating the entrance to the harbour is a Castle built by the Knights of St John behind which the lively town openly exhibits artefacts from a wide range of ages and cultures. Hippocrates, the father of modern medicine taught and built his sanatorium here.

A little further south is Niseros, the Volcano Island where you can walk deep into the still bubbling crater or Simi with its picturesque neo-classical village climbing precariously up the steep sides of the harbour. For those who like to venture a little further a field Rhodos, Astipalaia or even the renowned Cyclades islands, home to fabulous Mikonos and Santorini, are well within reach.

General information

Life in Turkey and Greece is generally informal even in restaurants and bars. Lightweight trousers, shorts and t-shirts are the order of the day. Some protection from the sun is needed, and a sun hat, long sleeves and plenty of sun lotion would be advisable. We also suggest you bring along a pullover, or sweat shirt for the cooler evenings, as well as light waterproofs. Stowage space onboard yachts is always limited so please bring soft bags in preference to suitcases.

Cost of living and provisions

Turkey: Fresh food is cheap and abundant. Shopping at the markets is an experience not to be missed. There are bakers, grocers and butchers at most ports of call. As in any foreign country it is advisable to bring along your favourite items as imported goods can be expensive or unobtainable: e.g. pork/ham products, tinned luncheon meats, breakfast cereals, savoury spreads, toiletries, sun lotion, and books. Eating out is incredibly cheap and we find that most of our guests take advantage of this, calculating the average meal costs approximately £8 per head, including drinks. Also Turkish carpets and leather goods are very inexpensive and of high quality.

Greece: Fresh food and local produce is reasonably priced in the Islands. Groceries in the supermarkets are similarly priced as the rest of Europe. There are bakers, grocers and butchers at most ports of call. In the larger ports and their supermarkets you can find almost anything that you would in Europe. Eating out can vary in price, the small local village restaurants can be very good value especially if you eat the local cuisine. Eating out in the larger towns or going to more international restaurants will be similarly priced to those in the rest of Europe.

Currency

Turkey: Take Cash (clean, unmarked notes) or Travellers Cheques. They are easily exchanged in most towns in Turkey where a far better rate will be obtained than if changed in the UK. Travellers Cheques can be cashed but there is a commission fee for this facility. Credit cards are acceptable in major towns. Scottish notes are difficult to change even at the banks.

Greece: Take Cash, Pounds Sterling or Euros (clean, unmarked notes) or Travellers Cheques. Credit cards are acceptable in most ports, shops and restaurants. Scottish notes are difficult to change even at the banks.

Passports & visas

Turkey: For British citizens, a valid passport is required. Visas are obtained upon entry into Turkey at a charge of £10 sterling note. Please note that coins will not be accepted and change will not be given from a higher denomination. The charter does not include the extras ("Extras") referred to in the section immediately before these booking terms ("the Booking Terms") which are provided by Crusader Yachting Management ("CYM").
- (2) The signatory named in the preceding booking form ("the Booking Form") and designated there as Party Leader ("the Party Leader") warrants that he/she is authorised to sign the Booking form for and on behalf of the individuals therein named referred to hereafter collectively with the Party Leader as ("the Party").

- (3) (a) References to "the Party" shall, unless stated otherwise, be construed to be references both to the Party collectively and to each member of the Party individually.

(b) References to "the Owner", "Crusader", "and the Party" shall include their successors in title and permitted assigns.

(c) References to "agents" of the Owner are references to Crusader, CYM and Crusader Yachting Limited.

2. FORMATION OF CONTRACTS

- (1) The Charter contract for the yacht selected ("the Yacht") between the Owner and the party shall be formed upon Crusader receiving from the Party (i) a properly completed Booking Form signed by the Party Leader accompanied by (ii) payment of the deposit in an agreed form together (iii) with the insurance requirements stipulated in Clause 5(2) and confirmation of acceptance of charter and an invoice being despatched to the Party Leader by ordinary first class post by Crusader.

- (2) The terms of the charter contract are set forth in the Booking Form and these Booking Terms. No other terms shall apply to the charter contract unless agreed in writing between the Owner or its agents and the Party. All representations and warranties expressed or implied to the Party other than those expressly stated in written material provided to the Party by Crusader on the Owner's behalf are hereby excluded. In the event of any conflict between the terms set forth in these Booking Terms and any representations and warranties contained in any other written materials, the former shall prevail.

3. LIABILITY OF THE PARTY LEADER AND OF THE PARTY

- (1) The Party Leader undertakes to the Owner and its agents and each of them procure the full, proper and prompt performance by the Party of the obligations of the Party in the charter contract and in default of such performance to indemnify and keep indemnified the Owner and its agents against all loss, damage or expense of any nature whether direct or consequential arising from such default. This indemnity shall become enforceable against the Party Leader as primary obligor by the Owner and its agents (as the case may be) by immediate demand in writing.

- (2) The liabilities of the Party are joint and several.

- (3) The Party shall exercise all due skill and care in relation to the yacht and all stores, equipment, fuel and other items provided by the Owner or its agents and shall perform all of the obligations of the Party in the charter contract and (subject to 3(4) below) shall keep indemnified the Owner and its agents and each of them against all loss, damage, or expense of any nature whether direct or consequential suffered by them and each of them as a result of any failure to exercise such skill and care, including loss, damage or expense arising from claims by third parties against the Owner or its agents.

- (4) The indemnity contained in 3(3) above shall be limited to the first £850 in respect of any single occurrence of damage or loss to the yacht provided:

- (a) the loss is suffered as a result of a risk adequately insured under the Owner's hull insurance

(b) the party or any of them have not by any act or omission in any respect vitiated such insurance

WARNING: BREACH OF ANY WARRANTIES, CONDITIONS OR OTHER TERMS OF THE OWNER'S HULL INSURANCE MAY RENDER THE PARTY FULLY LIABLE FOR LOSS OR DAMAGE TO THE YACHT.

(c) the loss was not caused by a wilful act or omission or by recklessness by the Party

- (5) The party will be liable or all loss, damage or expense (including inconvenience, incidental expenses, loss of charter fees, compensation paid to third parties) which are incurred or suffered by the Owner or its agents if the yacht is returned by the Party after the agreed date.

- (2) Any court action brought by the Party against the Owner or its agents arising directly or indirectly in relation to the charter contract (including in tort) must be commenced within two years of the date of the signing of the Booking Form by the Party Leader

- (4) If, as a result of force majeure, it becomes necessary in the Owner's reasonable opinion for the Owner to cancel a charter, refunds will be made subject to the deduction of all of the reasonable expenses of the Owners or its agents. No other recompense will be made.

- (5) The Owner or its agents may at any time on reasonable grounds (e.g. unavailability of yacht) alter the timings of the commencement or termination of a charter or make available a different vessel.
